Worksite Lactation Support program Ideas	Gina and Edna discussed ideas for community outreach pertaining to UBC and worksite Lactation.  Outreach areas would include: hospitals, schools, & clinics Also include presentations at breastfeeding support groups to inform people of worksite lactation program with UBC  Discussed desire to host a small seminar next year which would present and inform attendees about UBC and how worksite lactation programs benefits employers, also how to use work space effectively to implement successful lactation programs.  Fronberg Rebecca Stromberg may be helpful to Gina and Enda in these efforts. Patrice will assist network.
San Pete UBC lunch	.
UBC Lunches	UBC Lunches will be discontinued due to funding.  Lois Bloebaum is heading up a task force within the Utah Department of Health to get more of our hospitals to adopt at least some of the 10 steps (with hopes of a few more hospitals becoming Baby Friendly). She is working toward creating county dinners to invite hospital staff out to learn more about implementing the 10

	steps to becoming a Baby Friendly Hospital (the worksite lactation programs is a UBC project). She welcomes a UBC representative at the dinners. UBC's role at her dinners would be to invite these hospital staff to join UBC and to briefly discuss the coalition's projects.
501-c3	The UBC will be hiring a lawyer to help prepare and file 501-c3 nonprofit forms. Will require $2000 of budget. Current financial status: $3300 Contact treasurer before check is written so as to consolidate available funds. All members of the Board of Directors will need to submit a bio and resume for the 501-c3 paperwork. Please email to Meghan. Meghan will write up her own and offer it as an example. Judy Harris: Thank You Meghan! Articles of Incorporation for UBC in the State of Utah as a non-profit need to be located.
Increasing Diversity among UBC members	UBC is very limited in ethnic/racial/gender diversity. April Young Bennett (UDPH, Office of Disparities) Has done focus groups with different minority groups to gather a perspective of how breastfeeding is generally perceived by minority groups of Utah.
Education Coordinator	The position is vacant within UBC and needs to be filled. Main responsibility is to contact and create the lineup of speakers for the Breastfeeding Café (to be held in Aug. 2014) and the Perinatal Professional Consortium (Sept. 2014) Please forward anyone interested in the position to President Meghan Reed.
President-Elect	Also needed. Please forward nominations to Meghan.
